

Esker CEO, Jean-Michel Bérard, Named Engineer Entrepreneur of the Year

Derby, UK — December 12, 2013 — Esker, a worldwide leader in document process automation solutions is pleased to announce that Jean-Michel Bérard, CEO and President of the Board of Directors, has been named the 2013 Engineer Entrepreneur of the Year by weekly French news magazine l'Usine Nouvelle.

Following his award of 2013 Entrepreneur of the Year for the French Rhône-Alpes region (Ernst & Young), Jean-Michel Bérard has once again been rewarded for his entrepreneurial vision, commitment to innovation and the ability to anticipate major technology trends — being described by l'Usine Nouvelle as a “visionary engineer.”

Since 1985, Esker has emerged as a leading French software vendor by offering strategic solutions to support its customers' unique IT needs. Jean-Michel Bérard drives the business strategy, leads the Esker management team, and oversees the Asia-Pacific subsidiary along with Esker's five worldwide mail production facilities.

“I am greatly honoured by this award which recognises my entrepreneurial and technological accomplishments,” said Jean-Michel Bérard. “More so, it's a testament to Esker's enduring culture of change and innovation.”
